

“Chords For Careers”

“Chords For Careers” is an all acoustic music festival, scheduled for July 31, 2010 to help raise money for Streator Unlimited, in Streator, IL. It is being held in the City Park in Streator. The event will begin at 9 am, with vendors, and, we are also looking to coordinate with the Farmer’s Market on that day. The musical aspect will begin at 11 am and the event will end at 11 pm (all music taking place on the stage behind the war memorial).

We are currently looking for vendors to be a part of this event. The types of vendors is varied, however, we are definitely looking for things like: craft items, macrame, art, hand woven materials, food, jewelry, handcrafted items, handcrafted clothing, leather?, etc.

If you are interested in being part of this event and helping to raise money for a worthy cause, we would like to talk to you and work to bring it all together. There is a small vendor fee, “booth” sizes are approximately 10’X12’, there is electricity available in the park.

The musical styles, all acoustic-based, will feature: bluegrass, pop-rock, easy listening, folk, oldies, and there will even be an “open mike” period. A magician is also being scheduled to perform on the stage. Also, a beer garden is in the process of being implemented.
